

GYPSY BRIDE CASTS SPELL ON EAST SIDE

Cop in Pondering Over 12 Hour Wedding Fears for Future.

TRADE LOSS PREDICTED

Sharp Rivalry in Business Which Will Oust Keen Competitors Seen.

"You were raised on the East Side," said Policeman Rabinowitz to Policeman Irving Rabinowitz, "and you were in the second semester of your sophomore year at C. C. N. Y. when you joined the cops. And yet you seem not to have as good a working knowledge of the psychology and characteristics of the various races which come to make up the population of this great city as I have."

They were standing on the steps of Police Hall at 222 Broadway last night, watching the last of the guests departing from the marriage feast of Pizsa Janczi and Melina Rafela who were married in the East Side parlors of Pacific Hall where the bride, Pizsa Janczi, had set up for them at 208 Cherry street.

"And Cherry street," continued Officer O'Reilly, "or at least that section of it indicated by the number, is the heart of the new gypsy colony in New York. Did you know that?"

"I only just came down town to-day," Officer Rabinowitz replied, "from a cop's duty at East 121st street station, which takes in the East Side section. I should know that there were gypsies in Cherry street."

A good police officer, insisted Officer O'Reilly, "knows everything that a good police officer should know. Now then, do you know, for instance, why the gypsy wedding with its wealth of exotic color and its very close proximity to a close in the heart of New York's East Side, began at 10 o'clock this morning and continued for exactly twelve hours?"

"No," admitted Officer Rabinowitz. "Up at C. C. N. Y. I specialized in civics and mathematics and let ethnology slide. I should care if they took twelve hours or twenty-four."

What May Happen Soon.

"Which proves," said Officer O'Reilly, "the Darwinian theory of the survival of the fittest as applied to the East Side. These gypsies, mark my word, have descended here for the single purpose of skinning and despoiling the very best of the city. They have come to the East Side, began at 10 o'clock this morning and continued for exactly twelve hours."

"No," admitted Officer Rabinowitz. "Up at C. C. N. Y. I specialized in civics and mathematics and let ethnology slide. I should care if they took twelve hours or twenty-four."

"Which proves," said Officer O'Reilly, "the Darwinian theory of the survival of the fittest as applied to the East Side. These gypsies, mark my word, have descended here for the single purpose of skinning and despoiling the very best of the city. They have come to the East Side, began at 10 o'clock this morning and continued for exactly twelve hours."

"No," admitted Officer Rabinowitz. "Up at C. C. N. Y. I specialized in civics and mathematics and let ethnology slide. I should care if they took twelve hours or twenty-four."

"Which proves," said Officer O'Reilly, "the Darwinian theory of the survival of the fittest as applied to the East Side. These gypsies, mark my word, have descended here for the single purpose of skinning and despoiling the very best of the city. They have come to the East Side, began at 10 o'clock this morning and continued for exactly twelve hours."

"No," admitted Officer Rabinowitz. "Up at C. C. N. Y. I specialized in civics and mathematics and let ethnology slide. I should care if they took twelve hours or twenty-four."

"Which proves," said Officer O'Reilly, "the Darwinian theory of the survival of the fittest as applied to the East Side. These gypsies, mark my word, have descended here for the single purpose of skinning and despoiling the very best of the city. They have come to the East Side, began at 10 o'clock this morning and continued for exactly twelve hours."

"No," admitted Officer Rabinowitz. "Up at C. C. N. Y. I specialized in civics and mathematics and let ethnology slide. I should care if they took twelve hours or twenty-four."

"Which proves," said Officer O'Reilly, "the Darwinian theory of the survival of the fittest as applied to the East Side. These gypsies, mark my word, have descended here for the single purpose of skinning and despoiling the very best of the city. They have come to the East Side, began at 10 o'clock this morning and continued for exactly twelve hours."

"No," admitted Officer Rabinowitz. "Up at C. C. N. Y. I specialized in civics and mathematics and let ethnology slide. I should care if they took twelve hours or twenty-four."

"Which proves," said Officer O'Reilly, "the Darwinian theory of the survival of the fittest as applied to the East Side. These gypsies, mark my word, have descended here for the single purpose of skinning and despoiling the very best of the city. They have come to the East Side, began at 10 o'clock this morning and continued for exactly twelve hours."

"No," admitted Officer Rabinowitz. "Up at C. C. N. Y. I specialized in civics and mathematics and let ethnology slide. I should care if they took twelve hours or twenty-four."

"Which proves," said Officer O'Reilly, "the Darwinian theory of the survival of the fittest as applied to the East Side. These gypsies, mark my word, have descended here for the single purpose of skinning and despoiling the very best of the city. They have come to the East Side, began at 10 o'clock this morning and continued for exactly twelve hours."

"No," admitted Officer Rabinowitz. "Up at C. C. N. Y. I specialized in civics and mathematics and let ethnology slide. I should care if they took twelve hours or twenty-four."

"Which proves," said Officer O'Reilly, "the Darwinian theory of the survival of the fittest as applied to the East Side. These gypsies, mark my word, have descended here for the single purpose of skinning and despoiling the very best of the city. They have come to the East Side, began at 10 o'clock this morning and continued for exactly twelve hours."

"No," admitted Officer Rabinowitz. "Up at C. C. N. Y. I specialized in civics and mathematics and let ethnology slide. I should care if they took twelve hours or twenty-four."

"Which proves," said Officer O'Reilly, "the Darwinian theory of the survival of the fittest as applied to the East Side. These gypsies, mark my word, have descended here for the single purpose of skinning and despoiling the very best of the city. They have come to the East Side, began at 10 o'clock this morning and continued for exactly twelve hours."

"No," admitted Officer Rabinowitz. "Up at C. C. N. Y. I specialized in civics and mathematics and let ethnology slide. I should care if they took twelve hours or twenty-four."

"Which proves," said Officer O'Reilly, "the Darwinian theory of the survival of the fittest as applied to the East Side. These gypsies, mark my word, have descended here for the single purpose of skinning and despoiling the very best of the city. They have come to the East Side, began at 10 o'clock this morning and continued for exactly twelve hours."

"No," admitted Officer Rabinowitz. "Up at C. C. N. Y. I specialized in civics and mathematics and let ethnology slide. I should care if they took twelve hours or twenty-four."

"Which proves," said Officer O'Reilly, "the Darwinian theory of the survival of the fittest as applied to the East Side. These gypsies, mark my word, have descended here for the single purpose of skinning and despoiling the very best of the city. They have come to the East Side, began at 10 o'clock this morning and continued for exactly twelve hours."

"No," admitted Officer Rabinowitz. "Up at C. C. N. Y. I specialized in civics and mathematics and let ethnology slide. I should care if they took twelve hours or twenty-four."

"Which proves," said Officer O'Reilly, "the Darwinian theory of the survival of the fittest as applied to the East Side. These gypsies, mark my word, have descended here for the single purpose of skinning and despoiling the very best of the city. They have come to the East Side, began at 10 o'clock this morning and continued for exactly twelve hours."

"No," admitted Officer Rabinowitz. "Up at C. C. N. Y. I specialized in civics and mathematics and let ethnology slide. I should care if they took twelve hours or twenty-four."

"Which proves," said Officer O'Reilly, "the Darwinian theory of the survival of the fittest as applied to the East Side. These gypsies, mark my word, have descended here for the single purpose of skinning and despoiling the very best of the city. They have come to the East Side, began at 10 o'clock this morning and continued for exactly twelve hours."

"No," admitted Officer Rabinowitz. "Up at C. C. N. Y. I specialized in civics and mathematics and let ethnology slide. I should care if they took twelve hours or twenty-four."

"Which proves," said Officer O'Reilly, "the Darwinian theory of the survival of the fittest as applied to the East Side. These gypsies, mark my word, have descended here for the single purpose of skinning and despoiling the very best of the city. They have come to the East Side, began at 10 o'clock this morning and continued for exactly twelve hours."

"No," admitted Officer Rabinowitz. "Up at C. C. N. Y. I specialized in civics and mathematics and let ethnology slide. I should care if they took twelve hours or twenty-four."

"Which proves," said Officer O'Reilly, "the Darwinian theory of the survival of the fittest as applied to the East Side. These gypsies, mark my word, have descended here for the single purpose of skinning and despoiling the very best of the city. They have come to the East Side, began at 10 o'clock this morning and continued for exactly twelve hours."

"No," admitted Officer Rabinowitz. "Up at C. C. N. Y. I specialized in civics and mathematics and let ethnology slide. I should care if they took twelve hours or twenty-four."

"Which proves," said Officer O'Reilly, "the Darwinian theory of the survival of the fittest as applied to the East Side. These gypsies, mark my word, have descended here for the single purpose of skinning and despoiling the very best of the city. They have come to the East Side, began at 10 o'clock this morning and continued for exactly twelve hours."

WIFE CHARGES COSBY GAVE HER A BEATING

Other Witnesses Tell of Alleged Ill Treatment.

Several witnesses testified yesterday that Mrs. Virginia D. Cosby was ill-treated by her husband, Capt. Arthur W. Cosby, former Rough Rider, who is being sued for separation and alimony before Justice Gleicher and a jury in the Supreme Court.

One witness, who lives near the Cosby, said that Mrs. Cosby came to her house for protection on one occasion, saying that her husband had beaten her. Mrs. Cosby said her husband repeatedly had shaken his fist at her in a threatening manner and had once thrown her to the floor of the house, injuring her head and shoulder. The witness shed tears when this quarrel was recalled.

The controversy arose after the death of the infant daughter, Charlotte, in Lenox, Mass. She said she wanted to have the child buried in her family plot in Minnesota while Capt. Cosby wanted to have the burial in his family plot in Washington.

Mrs. Violet Young, a sister of Mrs. Cosby, said she found strained relations between Capt. Cosby and his wife, which she visited her home in Lenox in 1916. Mrs. Cosby was ill at the time, she testified, and later went to a sanatorium while the child was being taken to a convent in Albany. Mrs. Young said Capt. Cosby appeared to have difficulty in earning sufficient money to keep up the household, and she believed he held the witness admitted writing a letter to Capt. Cosby in which she told him his attitude with relation to him, and that she would care if they took twelve hours or twenty-four.

The trial will be continued to-day.

MRS. E. A. M'PHERSON COMMITS SUICIDE

Daniel O'Day's Daughter Shoots Herself Twice.

Mrs. Grace McPherson, the wife of E. A. McPherson and the daughter of the late Daniel O'Day, for many years an associate of John D. Rockefeller, in the early days of the Standard Oil Company, committed suicide last night about 9 o'clock in the bathroom of her apartment at the Hotel Majestic, at Central Park West and Seventy-second street. She shot herself twice in the right breast with a revolver and died a few minutes after the house surgeon, Dr. J. A. McLeary, reached her.

Mrs. McPherson and her husband had been living at the Majestic for about three months. Several witnesses testified that Mrs. McPherson had been under medical treatment for a serious nervous complaint, which made her despondent and melancholy. Mr. McPherson left three days ago for Texas to look at some oil properties in which he is interested, and Mrs. McPherson remained at the hotel alone. She came in last night a few minutes before 9 o'clock, wrote a letter and then went out and "made a few minutes' rest."

In about fifteen minutes she came back and went into the bathroom without removing her coat. A few minutes later her maid, Marie Hudson, heard a shot, and entering the bathroom, found Mrs. McPherson lying on the floor with the revolver beside her. The girl immediately telephoned the hotel office, and Dr. McLeary hurried to the apartment, but was unable to save Mrs. McPherson.

Mrs. McPherson was 40 years old, and had one son, Cameron, 19, who was recently discharged from the air service of the Canadian Army. Her father, who was prominent in oil circles, died in 1905, in France, leaving a large estate.

GIRL BATHES MINUS HOSE FOUND SMOKING

Cop Brings One Piece Suit Pair to Court.

Patrolman Peter McCone, one of the guardians of the morals of Lower Manhattan, went strolling along the beach yesterday to see what he could see. He found nothing unusual until he reached the foot of Straton's Walk, and there he was profoundly shocked by the spectacle of two young women in one piece bathing suits, sitting on rockers, sitting there smoking cigarettes.

He asked them: "Is it movin' picture actors you are?" "Now," said the pretty young ladies, "then you're violatin' the law." "Then you're violatin' the law," said the officer. "Get your clothes on and come with me."

Before Magistrate Geismer in the Coney Island Court the girls gave names as Elsie Hetch of 168 Irving avenue and Charlotte Davidson of 658 Manhattan avenue, both of Brooklyn. Magistrate Geismer said he was going to send them to the House of the Good Shepherd, but a woman who said she was Mrs. Wondra interceded for them, and the case was adjourned until to-day.

SIMS THANKS K. OF C.

Rear Admiral Expresses Appreciation of Work for Fleet.

Rear Admiral Sims, former commander of the Victory Fleet, has given his official appreciation of what the Knights of Columbus did for the fleet in a letter received at the K. of C. headquarters in New York City. "Upon relinquishing duties as commander of the United States naval forces in Europe, on behalf of the navy I wish to convey my sincere thanks and appreciation of the excellent service which has been rendered by your organization in aiding the spiritual and material welfare of the men of the navy. The heroic work of this kind, which fosters contentment and better morale, is of real military value and the record of your organization is a most happy one in this respect."

BOY NETS $25,000 FOR 30 BURGLARIES

D. J. Lundberg, 18, Pleads Guilty in Brooklyn.

D. Johannes Lundberg, 18, of 526 Sixth avenue, pleaded guilty yesterday to 30 burglaries in the Kings County Court. Dermott in the Kings County Court, Brooklyn, yesterday that within the last two months he had committed thirty burglaries. He pleaded guilty to grand larceny in the first degree.

District Attorney Lewis asked the court to give Lundberg the limit sentence. In the throne are many people for clemency. He said Lundberg had married about a year ago and that his wife was about to become a mother.

"He should have thought about his wife before," said the Judge. Lundberg will be sentenced Monday.

Brings 500 From South America.

The Lamport and Holt liner Vauban, due to-day from Argentina and Brazil, ports, brings 500 passengers, the biggest ship of the line ever has carried from South America to the United States. In the throng are many people from the south of the southern republics who have been unable to leave their homes because of drastic measures imposed on travelers by the governments of those countries. On board are many South American business men and merchants.

LORD READING SEES BETTER WORLD ERA

War Has Taught Peoples Necessity of Settling Disputes by Arbitration.

PRAISES LORD GEORGE Says British Premier Is Genius at Getting Warring Factions Together.

The Earl of Reading seems to entertain no anxiety as to the outcome of the Peace Conference, at least so far as Germany is concerned. Speaking last night in the Waldorf at a victory dinner of St. George's Society of New York the British Ambassador said: "While I am not permitted to speak of what is happening in Paris I should like to say this one word: The burden upon the men who are representing you and us is heavy. They have firm responsibility. I have firm confidence that the result will be to give us a victorious peace, demanding and receiving just terms from those who have caused such illimitable and terrible suffering."

"Make no mistake," he also said; "the laying down of arms by Germany is a final and triumphant victory. And again: 'The war has brought us all to the unalterable conviction that we must find a way to prevent war in the future. I believe there is unanimity among all the nations that have been fighting in the Allied cause of determining that never again must the sword be drawn to settle a quarrel which can so much better be disposed of by the arbitration of reason and justice. The enormous amount of thought and attention devoted to the preparation of a project devised to insure this result will assuredly receive full and just consideration from the peoples of the world and from those who speak as their representatives.'"

He spoke of closer relations between England and the Dominions as one of the best results of the war. In the time of reconstruction he foresaw a greater measure of popular happiness than had heretofore existed, provided reforms were in accordance with and not in defiance of economic laws.

"I am convinced," he said, "that there is a great desire to get together and arrive at solutions of these problems. In England we have at the head of affairs a past master in the art of bringing people into conference. Mr. Lloyd George throughout his career has shown a genuine feeling for looking facts in the face and for striving to find a remedy."

It is our way of meeting what is called the social revolution. We are fortunate in having trusted representatives of both labor and capital, who have learned to know each other better during the war and can therefore bring their standpoint with calmer judgment and much greater sympathy. It is this bringing together of men that affords the best hope for the future in all human affairs."

"What better illustration can be given than that of the friendship now existing between America and Britain? It is strengthened daily by more frequent and intimate intercourse, gaining a knowledge of each other that will stand the test of time. Even of difficulties, these two English speaking peoples know that they are actuated by the same ideals and seeking to attain the same ends."

Lord Reading sat at the right of the chairman, George Edward Ide, first vice-president of St. George's Society, and to the right of the speaker, Mr. Ide.

Gen. O'Ryan testified to the deep affection the American soldiers who fought with the British armies came to have for the British officers.

Before going to the Waldorf the Countess of Reading dining with Mrs. George Edward Ide at 331 Park avenue, where she was entertained by the wife of the Commissioner of Australia, Mrs. Walter Eyre Lambert, president of the Junior War Relief, Mrs. Edward R. Stearns, Mrs. J. P. Morgan, Jr., Mrs. J. D. Cravath and others active in the war relief work of the society.

SHERMAN DENIES HE ABDUCTED GIRL

Bronx Man Says Newark Miss Told Him She Was 14.

Benjamin Sherman, 355 Simpson street, The Bronx, was arraigned yesterday on a charge of abducting Viola Mueller, 14, of 29 Baldwin street, Newark. He denied the charge before Magistrate Stewart.

The girl was brought to the Yorkville court from the Children's Society, where she had been under treatment for epilepsy. She could not recall the details of the manner in which she left her home except that she was brought "by a man wearing a hat and a suit."

After some urging she said she met Sherman on Broadway the night of Sunday, April 13, and that he treated her to a glass of soda water. He then invited her to take a walk which ended at the rooming house.

Detective William J. Hauptmann of the Missing Persons Bureau said he had learned of the girl's whereabouts from a friend of Sherman. Later Mayor Siegel testified he had been with Sherman when he met the girl, and when he saw her picture in the papers he called Sherman's attention to it. He said Sherman suggested getting in touch with Detective Hauptmann.

Mrs. Betty Gries, who conducts the rooming house where the girl was found, and several character witnesses were called, after which adjournment was taken until Friday.

AUTOPSY IS BASIS OF $25,000 DAMAGE SUIT

Father Sues Hospital, Charging Body Was Mutilated.

Theodore S. Nelson, 142 Sullivan street, Brooklyn, has begun suit in the Supreme Court against the Long Island College Hospital, at Henry street, in Brooklyn, for $25,000 damages as a result of an autopsy performed upon the body of his 2-year-old son, Francis, last December.

The boy was taken to the hospital on December 24, the belief being that he was suffering from influenza. He died at the hospital, and the father said the hospital authorities refused to surrender the body, stating the Medical Examiner had issued a death certificate, and that the body had been found established. The following day, added Nelson, his son's body was restored to him in a mutilated condition, indicating an autopsy had been performed. Nelson said this was done without his authority.

The hospital authorities deny they were responsible for the autopsy and declare the Medical Examiner performed it.

KLAW AND ERLANGER NEAR BREAK, REPORT

Broadway Hears Producers Haven't Spoken for Year.

Reports were afloat in theatrical circles last night that the firm of Klaw & Erlanger, in which Marc Klaw and A. L. Erlanger have been partners for the last thirty years, is about to dissolve. It is understood that as a result of a series of differences that began with a quarrel over Mr. Erlanger's action in discharging Mr. Klaw's son as auditor of the firm, one of the partners is retiring at the end of the season, about the end of June.

The first quarrel between the two men, who at one time were the virtual chieftains of the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

The difficulties of Klaw & Erlanger involved the theatrical world through their control of the Syndicate Booking Agency, is said to have occurred just a year ago last Saturday, when Mr. Erlanger discharged Mr. Klaw's son, Joseph Klaw, in the absence of the young man's father. Since that time, according to Broadway reports, the partners have not spoken, save each other. Each side of the controversy early engaged attorneys to guard it in the untangling of the partnership. Mr. Klaw having retained Charles E. Turner, and Mr. Erlanger being represented by Levy Mayer of Chicago.

</